NEW SPANISH SHOW AND WEB SITE FOR GLENDALE RESIDENTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale 11, the city's cable station, and Glendaleaz.com, the official city Web site, have introduced new multi-media Spanish resources for residents to learn about various events, services and programs in the community.

Glendaleaz.com recently launched a new Spanish portal that will provide information on topics such as city phone numbers, special event information, city council districts, the city's community action program and Frequently Asked Questions. Many forms and documents will also be available in Spanish.

Glendale 11 is also just started airing Maricopa en Accion, a 30-minute television show that covers a variety of County related topics and services offered to assist all Maricopa County residents. This show airs at 8 a.m. on Sundays and at various times throughout the week.

"Communication with our residents is a high priority, and we are extremely pleased to launch a Spanish version of our Web site," said Julie Frisoni, city of Glendale Communications Director. "The Web site and program will go a long way towards educating Spanish-speaking residents about Glendale's many services and events."

Glendale 11 airs on Cox and Qwest Channel 11, 24-hours a day, seven days a week. For complete viewer's guide, visit
